SA AMATEUR RADIO DEVELOPMENT TRUST CALLS FOR NOMINATIONS FOR THE SIEMENS RADIO AMATEUR OF THE YEAR AWARDS

Here is an opportunity to recognise a radio amateur who has made a major contribution to the Amateur Radio Service. The SA Amateur Radio Development Trust is inviting nominations for the Siemens Radio Amateur of the Year Awards. There is a senior and junior category.

The senior award recognises the support and development of the Amateur Radio Service in South Africa. It is not for individual achievements such as DXCC and other operational awards or contests. The recipient will be a person who has given of his or her expertise and time to the promotion and/ or technical enhancement of Amateur Radio in South Africa.

The junior award is made to a young Radio Amateur, under the age of 25 years, who has excelled in promoting and developing the Amateur Service amongst his or her peer group. The candidate must have displayed initiative and good sportsmanship, with exemplary operation on the Amateur bands amongst peers.

The winners will receive a certificate and a cheque for R1 500, sponsored by Siemens Telecommunication, and a copy of the latest ARRL handbook sponsored by ECS. The closing date for nominations is 31 July 2005. The awards will be presented at the SARL Radio Technology Open Day on 20 August.

Full details and a nomination form can be found on www.amateurradio.org.za.

GAREC RECOMMENDS ESTABLISHMENT OF HF EMERGENCY FREQUENCIES

The first Global Amateur Radio Emergency Communications conference, GAREC 2005, was held in Tampere, Finland, on 13 and 14 June, under the umbrella of the IARU. Forty-five delegates from seventeen countries gave presentations on the amateur radio emergency service of their own countries and described some of the major emergencies in which they have been involved.

The view of the Conference was that progressively more international co-operation would be needed as time goes by and GAREC 2005 agreed a formal recommendation that the next competent conferences of IARU Regions 1, 2 and 3 should consider the establishment of a Centre-of-Activity Frequency for emergency traffic in the 15, 17, 20, 40 and 80 metre bands.

The entire proceedings of the conference, including all the slides and other recommendations, will be posted on the IARU website www.iaru.org/emergency/summary.html in due course and plans are in hand for further GARECs.

PROPAGATION REPORT

Kobus, ZS6KOB, reports that propagation conditions remain weak and prospects for the coming week are not much better. The sun spot number on Thursday was 25,2 compared to the 44,7 of the previous week. There is little to no activity on the surface of the sun, not even in the visible area. We will have to make peace with the very bad conditions.
